

Greg Mencoﬀ Biography

Recent exhibitions include In Grain: Contemporary Work in Wood at the Fleming Museum, University of Vermont (2015), Chasing Artifacts at Carroll and Sons, Boston (2014); Bradley International Print and Drawing Exhibition, Peoria, Illinois (2013); New England Biennial 2012, Brattleboro Museum, Brattleboro, Vermont.; Wood Work, Clark University, Worcester (2011). Mencoﬀ received a Massachusetts Cultural Council Artist Fellowship for Sculpture in 2005 and 2009 and a SMFA Traveling Fellowship in 2010.

Mencoﬀ is currently and since 2007 an Adjunct Professor at Massachusetts College of Art and Design, currently and since 2006 a Visiting Faculty at Tufts University Fine Arts Department, and he was an Associate Drawing Faculty at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts from 1984-1997. He was the principle at Boston Frame, a woodworking studio in Boston from 1987-2006 and Owner/ Curator of bf Annex Gallery in Boston from 2003-2006.

Mencoﬀ received his BFA from Tufts University/ School of the Museum of Fine Arts in 1981 and completed the SMFA Fifth Year Program in 1983 with a Traveling Scholars exhibition at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston. His work is included in The Graham Gund Collection, Fidelity Investments and Wellington Management and is represented by Carroll and Sons, Boston.